start addressing this issue of absenteeism. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT FOBAK: Thank you, Senator Hilgert. Senator Stuhr.

SENATOR STUHR: Thank you, Madam President and members. I just have a couple questions, Senator Suttle. I have received some calls from my schools that are not particularly looking at this favorably in the fact that they feel it is another mandate that they are going to have to do. And I was wondering can you tell me what kind of reporting? I mean they will have to fill out a form. They'll have to follow through in all of the provisions that are listed.

SENATOR SUTTLE: They already have to do that in some kind of form. But at this point, it really will not add that much to what they already have to do, and there's a lot of leniency in how they want to address this. So I don't think that they will find that this is onerous in any way.

SENATOR STUHR: Okay.

SENATOR SUTTLE: Because they still have to keep attendance records.

SENATOR STUHR: Okay. And what we're just doing is setting some minimum or...

SENATOR SUTTLE: Right, some guidelines for them so that they can start addressing absenteeism at an earlier time and address whatever problems that family is having so that they can nip it early and see if they can't work with the problems earlier than at a later time.

SENATOR STUHR: Okay. Right. And I think probably again the size of school is probably a factor because many of the smaller schools are not dealing with those kinds of problems so, okay, thank you very much.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, Madam President, members. I have a
